Suggested answer

Dear Katy and Paul,

I haven't written for a long time, so I thought I'd drop you a line. Are you on vacation now? I'm at the beach with my family but the weather is terrible – rain, rain, rain! I hope it's better where you are. Let me know how things are going. I hope you're well.

Best wishes,

Philip

P.S. A friend of mine is going to be in Chicago next month. He doesn't know anyone there. Is there any chance you could show him around for one day? I'd be really grateful!

Dear David,

I am just writing to say how much I enjoyed your party last weekend.

I didn't see you when I left, which is why I'm writing to say thank you now. There was a really good atmosphere and we all had a wonderful time.

I imagine you spent ages getting everything ready. The food was great and the cocktails were fantastic. It was a really good idea to have the music and the dancing in the backyard, too. Anyway, thanks again. It was an evening I'll never forget.

Love,
Helen

Dear David,

I'm writing to say sorry for last weekend. I feel very bad about it and I hope you'll forgive me. I hate to think what other people think of me.

I know it wasn't a good idea to dance on the table, but I was having such a good time. I'm afraid I didn't realize that it wasn't strong enough for my weight.

Anyway, please accept my apologies for being so stupid. It won't happen again! I've enclosed a check and I hope that it's enough to pay for the damage.

Best wishes (with a red face),
Benita

Hi

I saw your ad in the local paper and I thought I'd drop you a line. I'm interested in a time management course and it would be cool if you could send me a little more info.

Can you give me a few more details about the course dates, the fees, and stuff like that? What kind of stuff do we study during the course? Are the courses for people with a job or for people who are looking for one?

Finally, can you tell me if you also run part-time courses in the evening?

I can't wait to hear from you. Thanks a lot.

All the best.

Cosmo Brickett
